

123 Newton Street, Macclesfield, SK11 6RN

Located on a sought after street within close walking distance of the town centre, South Park and excellent transport links. This particular home is set back from the road behind a small front garden and offers a fabulous blend of a bygone era along side modern day comforts. The elegant interior design retains much of the character typical of the era in which it was built in the form of high ceilings and original stripped wooden doors. These features combined with modern conveniences, such as gas fired central heating via a Vaillant boiler to provide a warm and comfortable home in which to live. In brief the property comprises; entrance hall, living room, spacious dining room and kitchen. To the first floor are two spacious bedrooms and bathroom. The fabulous Westerly facing rear garden is the real feature and of a good size with a stone flagged patio to sit and relax with friends and enjoy the setting. Beautiful flower beds have been carefully nurtured and offer an array of attractive plants, flowers and shrubs to the borders.

Location

Set in Cheshire's plains, on the fringe of the Peak District National Park, Macclesfield combines the old with the new. Originally a medieval town, Macclesfield became the country's 'Silk' capital in the 1750's, whilst it still retains that heritage, in recent years it has grown to become a thriving business centre. Macclesfield is a modern shopping centre with a range of leisure facilities to suit most tastes. There is a popular monthly Treacle Market which is a bustling Arts, Antiques, Crafts, Food and Drink Market, held on the cobbles of the town centre with around 140 stalls of exceptional food and drink, unique crafts and vintage and information from the Macclesfield community. There are many independent and state primary and secondary schools. The access points of the North West Motorway network system, Manchester International Airport and some of Cheshire's finest countryside are close at hand. Intercity rail links to London Euston and Manchester Piccadilly can be found at Macclesfield and Wilmslow railway stations as well as commuter rail links to the local business centres.
