Disley is situated on the east of Cheshire and is the gateway to the Peak District. It lays claim to the famous National Trust owned Lyme Park which offers the largest house in Cheshire and was used for filming part of Pride and Prejudice. Disley maintains the charming village feel with many amenities including the local infant school, independent shops, public houses and restaurants. Ideally placed on the Manchester Piccadilly to Buxton railway line and the recently completed new relief road (A555) to Manchester airport, make the village ideal for the commuter of today. With the High Peak on our doorstep, those wanting the escape to outdoors wont have to travel too far!
